Find the colleges that offer what you want to study—at the undergraduate or graduate level

"Comprehensive no-nonsense guide" —The New York Times

INDEX OF MAJORS 1986-87

Whether you are planning for college or graduate study, this completely updated edition of the Index can help you find what you're looking for. Here are 500 major fields of study—from accounting to zoology—and the 3,000 colleges and graduate institutions, state by state, that currently offer them at the associate, bachelor's, master's, doctor's, and first professional degree levels.

Based on facts provided by the colleges themselves for the 1986-87 academic year, the Index also provides important information to both students and counselors on locating colleges with:

- cooperative education, independent study, internships, and external degree programs
- accelerated study, double majors, honors, combined bachelor's/graduate degrees, and other special academic programs
- special admissions procedures
- specific religious affiliations.

Other books to help you plan for college:

THE College HANDBOOK

The all-new, 1986-87 edition provides facts on enrollment, majors, freshman and transfer admissions requirements and procedures, annual expenses, available financial aid and how to apply for it, student activities and athletics. Contains descriptions of more than 3,100 colleges and universities and sound advice on choosing a college . . . $15.95

THE College COST BOOK

A step-by-step guide to help meet the rising cost of higher education. The 1986-87 edition, by the College Scholarship Service of the College Board, includes the latest information on aid eligibility and shows how to develop financial plans for paying for college. Lists expenses for 1986-87 at 3,500 institutions. Contains sample forms, financial need worksheets, a bibliography of aid sources, and more . . . $10.95

Both books are available at bookstores or by sending a check to:
College Board Publications, Box 886, New York, New York 10101

This book is distributed to the trade by the Macmillan Publishing Company.
